

November 14, 2007
For Immediate Release
Media Contact: Denise Winkler
Public Relations Director
(513) 887-4035
Cell (513) 617-7041

Butler County Children Services Announces Major New Initiative to Protect Children

Hamilton, Ohio (November 14, 2007) Butler County Children Services in partnership with the Butler County Sheriff's Office will announce a major initiative, tomorrow at a press conference held at Butler County Children Services in Hamilton. This is the first initiative of its kind in the state and will have a major impact on ensuring the protection of children and child welfare workers in the field.

Sheriff Richard Jones will join Commissioner Chuck Furmon at the 1:30 p.m. press conference to launch this new initiative.

The press conference will be held at Butler County Children Services office at 300 North Fair Ave., Hamilton Ohio 45011 at 1:30 p.m.